cw:extreme violence

I abhor all forms of violence.

Anti trans groups have in the past accused me of excusing violence and victim blaming, because I have highlighted their ridiculous bullshit.

Allow me to do so again.

Do not continue if squeamish.

You will hear today how Julie Bindel was viciously attacked by trans activists...etc

These people propagate dangerous and false narratives about trans people that create an environment of actual life threatening violence for trans people.

CW

Two anti trans purveyors of hate and misinformation are repeatedly quoted and used to excuse this violence.

That of Maria MacLachlan (skepticat) who somehow blames me for the fact she gets called out as a toxic obnoxious bigot.

Here is a picture of Maria after her assault..

You will notice the 'bruise' seems to be on her right-hand side.

The pics below show the punch that was thrown by her assailant hit her on her left-hand side.

This came after she had a younger girl in the headlock who seems to connect her head with Marias right side...

If you can stomach it, look again at the trans women in the earlier picture, compare and contrast with this Image of Julie Bindel after the 'trans activist assault' last night, that will be weaponised by anti-trans groups for months and years.

Smug, arrogant, pathetic.

End.
