Call me out? OMFG - listen to yourself. You mean target and harass me along with the rest of your cult. Of course it's OK to fightback against bs ToS which - unlike you - I never broke in the first place. No need for socks? LMAO.

You think I have no right to complain to @Humanists_UK that they are platforming your ignorant talk about trans people? You're not trans, you have a long history of opposing the trans rights they stand for. That's not harassing you Maria.

Don't put words in my mouth. Complain to your organisation til the second coming doesn't happen. IDGAF. You're too thick to grasp that a local group is not Humanists UK. You're just afraid of me because you know I am careful to provide reason and evidence for everything I say.

Oh, and btw, Sprouty, Harrow Humanists have corrected the title of my talk on all their social media so you can stop using that as an excuse and come clean about your objection to me which is based on your misogyny and male entitlement.

You are still spreading that lie about me and Mac being the same person? What happened to "reason and evidence", the Mumsnet "doxxers" said we are the same person as they nicked a pic of me n kids at the Colosseum and said that is in Naples, where Mac went on holiday :D

I like that you included "transgender ideology", that far right dogwhistle into your email. Makes it seem so much more credible.

Far-right dogwhistle? That's scraping the barrel. Transgender ideology refers to the scientifically unsupportable ideas promoted by trans activist idiots and against which you have no argument. Come to my talk and I'll tell you all about it.

Complaining about your talk being associated with @Humanists_UK and a workers co-operative is not allowed now? What happened to my free speech?

Feminists have campaigned for people like Roosh to be no platformed. Milo to be no platformed. You now think that was all "harassment"
