Joss Prior

@joss_prior

....flubble....

Two anti trans purveyors of hate and misinformation are repeatedly quoted and used to excuse this violence.

That of Maria MacLachlan (skeptocat) who somehow blames me for the fact she gets called out as a toxic obnoxious bigot. Here is a picture of Maria after her assault.. 3/?

I am not a purveyor of hate and misinformation. I make sure EVERYTHING I write is supported by evidence.

'Toxic obnoxious bigot' is just gratuitous abuse.

 Joss Prior flubble....
@joss_prior

You will notice the 'bruise' seems to be on her right-hand side.

The pics below show the punch that was thrown by her assailant hit her on her left-hand side. This came after she had a younger girl in the headlock who seems to connect her head with Marias right side...

Again with the lie about having a young girl in a headlock.

This in JUNE 2019 – more than a year after the trial in which the judge dismissed the allegation as nonsense.

The bruise on my face was caused by one of the other assailants. The assault that caused it could not been seen clearly in the footage and the assailant never caught.

Maria recently ADMITTED she was stalking a trans womans Facebook for pictures another gendercrit was looking for...

You literally can not make up stuff this ridiculous...

They are creepy malevolent weirdos.

good story.

OK, time to face the music. This is what happened.

After a pleasant night watching comedy and partaking of a little wine I had a look at my Facebook before going to bed. Not that it matters, but this was actually just after 2 a.m. I was fast asleep well before 3. On FB, I saw a friend had posted this:

Trying to be helpful, I had the idea of looking at Hayden's FB to see if there were any pics of him looking like a woman. There weren't. In the minute or so I was there, apart from accidentally sending a friend request, I simply discovered that Hayden does the same thing that so many trans-identifying men do, which is to post countless selfies taken using a filter which is, of course, a dead giveaway of their transgender status. So, unfortunately, my FB friend will have to make do with one from the usual selection.

Another lie. Spending less than a minute looking at someone's public Facebook page is not stalking.

Creepy, malevolent weirdo.

That cannot be described as anything other than deliberately provocative antagonistic behaviour...to a black lives matter protest...

Really.

This sticker drew my attention...

Its no longer trans rights vs 'womens sex-based rights'

They are pitting themselves against diversity

This is a photo of me showing a collection of stickers to photographers. There was no deliberately provocative antagonistic behavior on our side.
